

PRINCE TO DINE AT WHITE HOUSE

Will Be Guest of President and Mrs. Roosevelt Tonight.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Exercises in Honor of Wm. McKinley in House of Representatives.

HENRY IS ATTENDING

Washington, Feb. 27.—Memorial exercises in honor of McKinley were held in the house of representatives today, Prince Henry being the guest of honor. The exercises drew the most representative gathering to the galleries and floor of that chamber ever seen.

At eleven thirty o'clock the marine band stationed behind the speakers' desk played "Nearer My God to Thee," followed with an intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana.

Soon after Prince Henry arrived the speaker and house arose as one man as the royal visitor came down the center of the aisle. Simultaneously with the Prince's arrival the band struck up the German National Anthem and until the last strains died away the assemblage remained standing, the Prince bowing pleasantly to several members of the diplomatic corps.

The prince was then escorted to a seat on the speaker's stand. The president and cabinet followed, the president taking his seat behind the prince, the supreme judges being next seated. Then President Frye assumed the chair and announced a prayer by the chaplain.

The galleries were a blaze of color, the ladies costumes flashing brilliantly from among the more sombre garments of the men. The executive gallery was filled, the center of attraction being Mrs. Roosevelt and daughter Alice.

Senator Frye then introduced Secretary of State John Hay, who delivered an eloquent tribute to the memory of McKinley.

Prince Reaches Washington. Washington, Feb. 27.—Prince Henry and his suite left Jersey City for Washington over the Pennsylvania railroad at 1:30 o'clock this morning and reached here at nine o'clock. A special train of eight cars, the same which conveyed him to and from from Washington was used. As early as 7 o'clock thousands had congregated at the Pennsylvania railroad station, waiting to get a glimpse of the prince.

The chief of police with 100 policemen were on hand to keep the crowd in check and secret service detectives mingled in the throngs.

Dines With Roosevelt. Prince Henry of Prussia will be the guest of President and Mrs. Roosevelt at dinner this evening. The party to meet him will be an exceedingly small one and the occasion as informal as the rank of the imperial visitor and the dignity of his host will permit. The German ambassador and a part of Prince Henry's suite have been invited, as well as some friends of the President's family. Miss Roosevelt will be present at the dinner at the German embassy on Friday evening.

Ask Receiver for Paper Company. St. Joseph, Mich., Feb. 27.—Nelson E. Funk, Secretary Kauffman Funk and Walter Funk have filed a petition in the circuit court asking a receiver for the Western Book and Paper company of this city. The liabilities will reach $25,000, while assets consist of a brick building and accounts collectable amounting to only $2,000. The bill charges President Moore of Chicago with having "arbitrarily and tyrannically" changed the combination of the safe so that Secretary Funk could not gain access to it.

Race Won by King of Horses. London, Feb. 27.—For the first time since his accession King Edward yesterday appeared on the race course. He went to the Kempton park steeplechase, "changed the combination of the chases to see his Grand National candidate, Ambush II, run in the Stand steeplechase. Ambush II won the race and its victory was followed by a scene of wild enthusiasm. The distance was two miles and a half.

Injured in Natural Gas Explosion. Kokomo, Ind., Feb. 27.—A natural gas explosion wrecked the home of Mrs. Harriet Achey, and Mrs. Achey, Mrs. Ida Achey and Mrs. Blanche Barrington were buried in the ruins. The women were terribly injured and probably will die. This was the third natural gas explosion in this city in a week. The ground is saturated, the odor being perceptible everywhere, as the large mains are leaking.

Notes Intended for Congressmen. Marion, Ill., Feb. 27.—The congressional contest in the Calico district has been settled so far as the Williamson county Republicans are concerned. Senator C. P. Burnett and Judge W. W. Duncan have withdrawn from the race and Marion Boles has been endorsed as the choice of the home candidates. Mr. Boles was chaplain of the Ninth Illinois in the Spanish-American war.

BEST ATHLETES OF GREAT WEST

The Central A. A. U. Has a Large Number of Competitors for Indoor Track Meet.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 27.—The entries for the Central Association Amateur Athletic union's indoor championship meet at the exposition building in this city on March 1 were given out today.

The card is made up of twelve events and the entries include contestants from the University of Chicago, Debut College, Milwaukee Athletic club, Detroit Athletic club, First Regiment Athletic association of Chicago, and various colleges throughout the state, in addition to the high schools and Young Men's Christian associations of Chicago and Milwaukee. The crack athletes of the West will come together, and each event will undoubtedly be hotly contested. The entries number over 300.

TIME LIMIT FOR BELOIT EXPIRED

No Answer from Line City on Shoe Factory Proposition—Looks Good for Janesville.

The Beloit committee having in charge the matter of raising a fund of $40,000 to secure the removal of the Marzluft shoe Co. to that city had not accepted the proposition made by the Marzluft company at noon, the time limit of the proposition, and it is now up to Janesville to secure the factory, or rather, retain it.

Mr. Marzluft has propositions from ten cities in various parts of the country, but to none of these will the factory go without a cash bonus, which in some instances is freely offered.

Mr. Marzluft is daily receiving orders from old customers running up into the thousands of dollars. The Janesville committee are canvassing the city today and are meeting with considerable encouragement. The committee are calling on the leading business men to get an idea of how they feel regarding the matter, and, if given proper encouragement, will call a meeting and put the matter in a tangible form.

So far the committee have received considerable encouragement and are pleased with the outlook.

Mr. Marzluft is generally regarded as an honest man, an expert shoe manufacturer and a man of his word. Consequently the proposition is regarded as a good one, with little or no risk attached. It now looks as though the factory will remain in this city.

A PRETTY WEDDING AT TRINITY CHURCH

D. H. Higgins of Neilsville, Wis., United in Marriage to Miss Ada Mae Thoroughgood.

At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Trinity Episcopal church in the presence of the relatives and a few invited friends, the Rev. J. A. M. Richer performed the ceremony that united D. H. Higgins of Neilsville and Miss Ada Mae Thoroughgood as man and wife.

The bride is the youngest daughter of ex-Mayor and Mrs. John Thoroughgood and is a young lady whose charming personality has won for her a host of close friends. The groom is one of the leading young business men of Neilsville where he is engaged in the hotel business. He is a young man whose many sterling qualities have made him a general favorite both at home and in this city.

After the ceremony the principals and guests were driven to the home of the bride's parents where an elegant wedding dinner was served. The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins will remain in the city until the last of the week when they will leave for the groom's home in Neilsville and later on in the spring will take an extended trip through the east.

Heat Supply of Glass

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 27.—It is reported that the Independent Window Glass company is bidding for skilled workmen, and is offering to run its factory until the last of June, although the agreement calls for a shutdown May 15. Petitions are being circulated among the workmen throughout the country not to accept the offer, as the extra six weeks' work would increase the production of 7,000,000 boxes of glass, whereas the maximum order call for 4,500,000, and the surplus would prevent factories from running next winter.

Sugar Company to Run Distillery

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 27.—A government license to operate a distillery was issued to the Cereal Sugar company which will now develop its new industry of making alcohol from hydrol. The process is yet in the experimental stage, but is being rapidly developed. It was discovered and patented by the company, which hopes to develop one of the most important distilleries in the country.

Price, Half a Dollar

"The Gallatin North Missourian" heard of a young woman in the neighborhood the other day who, by way of response for a $50-cent money order sent to an eastern firm that advertised a recipe for making the hands white, received the following: "Put them in dishwater three times a day."

TO POLISH UP RAILWAY MEN

Pure English and Good Form Is Required on the Northwestern.

MUST BE POLITE

Familiar Vernacular of the Rails To Be Abolished After April 1.

NEW RULES PREPARED

Politeness, such as rules the social circles of the best type; model English, of the sort taught in universities; and uniforms which could grace the neighborhood parlors of Prince Henry these are to be on the regular schedule of the Chicago & Northwestern road after April 1.

A new code of rules, embracing these departures, has been issued by the company, and trainmen are being examined as to their knowledge of the subject. Everyday from 200 to 300 of the employees file into the offices in the various yards and for ten or twelve hours ponder over whether a sidetrack is an "auxiliary," whether a newsboy has the right of speaking before he is spoken to, or whether hats should be taken off when passing through a diner or the parlor car.

Whistle an "Audible Signal"

There is no such thing on the Northwestern road as a whistle signal—unless it is talked over in the round-house. That screeching sound has become an "audible signal." The man gazing from his window in Cuyler is to no longer see "the running of trains," but instead watches the "movement of trains." When trains are disconnected in the future they do not "break apart" as they used to, but they "part" or "separate."

On April 1 there will be no "engineers" on the road, but all will be "conductors." When trains were delayed along the road, and the conductor was asked the reason, they used to say: "We're sidetracked." Now they will inform the suburbanite that "this train is on an auxiliary waiting for a train of superior right to pass."

Of course, these new terms will not give a great amount of light to the untravelled citizen, but he, too, will be educated in time to come to understand that the Northwestern is pioneer in the adaptation of university English to railroad affairs. His education is expected to be far more rapid than that of the man who used to be called "the blind end brakeman," but who is now to be known as "the man in charge of the rear end of the train."

More Politeness Required

But introduction of model language is not all. The men are to learn true politeness. For years the Northwestern has been known to have one of the best and most considerate of working forces, but this is not enough. Conductors were expected in the past to "remain with their train until the passengers have alighted."

Now, "on the arrival of their train at the terminal station they must remain in full uniform until passengers have alighted." There are to be no more cases of passengers going by their station, "for on leaving a station passenger brakemen will pass through the train from the front to the rear, and when about one-third the length of the car from the forward end, with closed doors, will announce in a clear and distinct voice the name of the next station, and then proceed to within the same distance from the rear end and make the same announcement."

Full Duty of Men

These rules were framed by R. H. Ashton, General Superintendent, and W. A. Gardner, General Manager. They contain also the instructions as to the full duty of the men. They are framed in accord with the standard rules adopted by the American Railway association. It is expected they will be adopted in part or in full by all of the other western roads, going into force on the Union Pacific about the same time as on the Northwestern.

The men on the Milwaukee division already have struggled with the examination. Those on the Galena division will finish up this week, and those on the Northern Wisconsin and other divisions will be tested in Milwaukee and Janesville in a few days. The tests are in charge of an Assistant Division Superintendent, an "engineer" and a conductor.

Hoopeston Arson Case on Trial

Danville, Ill., Feb. 27.—One hundred and eighty witnesses have been subpoenaed in the case of Benjamin Oppenheim, the Hoopeston clothier charged with arson, whose trial began yesterday in the circuit court. Last fall a fire which commenced in the basement of Oppenheim's store destroyed it and several adjoining buildings in Hoopeston.

Insane from Human Bite

La Crosse, Wis., Feb. 27.—Snapping like a mad dog, Ernest Olson, night marshal of the village of Galesville, was committed to the Mendota insane asylum, crazed from the effects of a human bite. Olson arrested Henry Brenker for being drunk. While on the way to the lock-up Brenker bit Olson in the hand.

STUDIED INSULT FOR ROOSEVELT

Lieutenant-Governor Tillman of South Carolina, Withdraws Invitation.

WAS FOR REVENGE

President May Not Present Sword of Honor to a Spanish War Hero.

ANIMUS OF INCIDENT

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 27.—Lieutenant Governor James A. Tillman of South Carolina, a nephew of the Senator now in contempt for introducing Larroon and prize ring tactics into the United States senate, today sent a telegram to President Roosevelt which is and evidently was intended to be an insult of the most flagrant kind.

The animus of the incident is found in the fact that the president was forced to withdraw the invitation extended to Senator Tillman to be present at the White House dinner to Prince Henry, the formal withdrawal being made necessary when Tillman declined to accept a list that he was not wanted and insisted on being an unwelcome guest.

President Was to Present Sword. When Roosevelt planned to visit the Charleston exposition he was asked to present a sword to Major Jenkins of the First United States Volunteer Cavalry, the sword being purchased by Southern friends of his, who sought to pay honor to a brave man and gallant soldier. The president willingly agreed to do this, and so informed the committee of which Lieutenant Governor Tillman is chairman.

Studied Insult Is Sent. Today Tillman sent the following message to the president, saying he did so in deference to requests by wire from the subscribers to the sword fund:

"A short while ago I had the honor to address your Excellency a letter requesting that on the occasion of your visit to Charleston you present a sword to Major Meach Jenkins of the First United States Volunteer Cavalry, of whose gallant services you spoke so highly, your words being engraved on the scabbard. You accepted the invitation for which we thank you. I am now requested by contributors to the sword fund to ask that you withdraw said acceptance."

"JAMES H. TILLMAN," Refers to Senate Incident

In explaining the sending of the telegram, Lieutenant Governor Tillman said:

"It is with much regret that I am directed, or rather required, to have sent the telegram I did, especially in view of the fact that I am so closely related to one who but a few days ago was subjected to an affront which was seemingly, or at least the people who contributed to the purchase of the sword think, unwarranted."

STILL NO TRACE OF E. W. CONNELL

Active Search Has Been Taken Up by His Family for the Insurance Man.

There is still no trace of the whereabouts of Edward Connell, the missing insurance man, who has been missing since Monday night. Active search for him has been taken up by his family and the police and every place that it is thought that he might have fallen in is being thoroughly searched. Mr. Connell was last seen on Monday evening about seven thirty at Baack's clothing store by John T. Wilcox. He talked with Mr. Connell at that time and he seemed to be sober and all right. He had taken off the cap he had been wearing during the winter and had put on a soft black felt hat.

Mr. Wilcox feels quite certain that he did not go into the country as he usually told either he or Louis Hemmens when he was going out of the city. Another thing that makes Mr. Connell think that he did not go into the country is that he did not have any money and borrowed 25 cents from Louis Hemmens.

There is hardly a doubt but that some disaster has befallen the missing man, who was getting quite old and feeble.

Join the Ax Team

Alexandria, Ind., Feb. 27.—The Kelley Ax Works, the largest independent plant in the world, will enter the trust two years a the trust offered $750,000 for the Kelley plant. The combine will be reorganized, with W. C. Kelley as president. J. P. Kelley was at New York two weeks negotiating with the trust officials. The plant employs 1,000 men and makes 30,000 axes daily.

Detroit Banks Are Sued

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 27.—An appearance was entered yesterday for the State Savings bank in a suppressed suit which the Union Trust Company, receiver of the wrecked City Savings bank, has brought against Frank C. Andrews, vice president of the bank, making the Preston National bank and the State Savings bank and other banks garnish defendants.

WOMEN MAY VOTE IN STATE OF IOWA

An Amendment to the Constitution to That Effect Passed the State Senate.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 27.—The resolution to submit to a vote of the people the proposition to change the constitution so that women would be allowed the right of suffrage was passed by the senate without discussion by a vote of 28 to 16.

Senator Allyn, who had been selected by the suffragists to father the resolution, was the only senator to speak when the resolution was reached on the calendar, and he made the simple statement that it ought to pass.

There was little interest in the event, the members merely voting when their names were called and returning immediately to other matters in which they appeared engrossed.

The suffrage resolution passed the senate at the last session and was defeated in the House. It appears to be the settled conviction that it will have a similar experience this time.

GOOD RECORD FOR ROCK COUNTY JAIL

Since the First of January Not a Single Tramp or Drunk Has Been Committed.

Since the first of January not a single drunk or tramp has been committed to the Rock county jail and there is only one boarder of this class at the jail now.

This is something new in the history of the county jail where frequently in the past tramps and drunks would be plentiful. Many of them would purposely commit some misdemeanor, so as to get a jail sentence, where they could play cards, read the newspapers, chew tobacco, spit on the walls and have plenty of palatable food to eat.

In many cases the treatment they got at the jail would be better than what they would get at home.

This got to be quite a nuisance and Sheriff Maltress thought he would apply remedies to correct the evil. The inmates of the jail are not allowed tobacco in any form, they are not allowed to play cards or read the newspapers. This caused a great loud when the order was issued and none of the weed nicotine was allowed in the jail corridors and the bill of fare was less sumptuous, but our worthy sheriff was obdurate and his boarders have boycotted his hotel, and the register shows a constantly decreasing list of guests.

Sheriff Maltress regards the jail as a penal institution and not a winter resort for habitual drunkards and tramps.

TO MODIFY PLANS FOR POSTOFFICE

Change Will Be of Minor Importance, and Will Not Effect the General Appearance.

A letter from Congressman Cooper received today says that the supervising architect is modifying his plans so that the contractors will be able to submit satisfactory figures on the Janesville government building. The charges are of minor importance and will not affect the general appearance. New bids will be submitted and work commenced at an early date.

Prosecute Butterfat Dealers

Chicago, Sept. 27.—To stop the sale of tops of butter for butter each week in the Chicago market the state pure food commission has begun the prosecution of all dealers against whom evidence can be found. Twenty-one suits were brought yesterday before Justice Richardson by Assistant Food Commissioner R. M. Patterson.

Guilt of Illegals

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 27.—Henry A. Taylor was convicted in the superior court of bribing city officials and of conspiracy in connection with the water contract with the city. The jury deliberated thirty-two hours before reaching a verdict.

Boers Rush British Line

London, Feb. 27.—Kitchener reports that 600 Boers driving cattle rushed the outpost line near Botha's Berg, Transvaal Colony, the night of Feb. 23, and that some of them got through. The Boers left fifteen dead and six wounded on the field.

Lynching at Nortonville, Ill.

Jacksonville, Ill., Feb. 27.—Woodford Hughes was shot by a mob early this morning at Nortonville, a small town in the southern part of this county, six miles from a railroad. Hughes was accused of attempted murder, and had been warned to leave the town.

New Jersey to Fight Mosquitoes

New York, Feb. 27.—After a long and humorous debate the New Jersey assembly has passed the mosquito-exterminating bill by a vote of 48 to 9. The bill appropriates $10,000 for the purpose. The money is to be expended by the state entomologist.

Roosevelt to Take a Vacation

New York, Feb. 27.—President Roosevelt has decided to spend a week in April fishing trout in the Allegheny mountain streams of Garrett county, Maryland, sixty miles west of Cumberland.

LOCAL PEOPLE IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Brand Finds Many Janesville Folks in Golden State.

DOING WELL THERE

Existence of Smallpox is a Damper to Travel in That Section.

SOME OF VISITS MADE

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 24.—It had been my intention to devote this letter to telling something about Monterey, the first capital of California, but a little incident which occurred this afternoon led me to the sudden determination to sidetrack my reminiscences of the quaint old city slumbering by the sea until another time and gossip with you awhile concerning some people whom you know.

To begin with, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Erredge are guests of the city of Los Angeles. It is through no particular desire of theirs that they are enjoying life at the expense of this western metropolis and they do not seem to consider it an overwhelming honor. But the city fairly insisted on paying their expenses for three weeks and simply would not take no for an answer. The reason for this unusual manifestation of hospitality is to be found in the prevalence of small-pox in the city and in the fact that a case developed in the building in which Mr. and Mrs. Erredge are making their home while in Los Angeles.

Both Are Quarantined

Quarantined in an upper room in a large rooming house at 326 North Hill street they have spent the time in seclusion since last Monday, Feb. 17, and their enforced retirement will not come to an end until the tenth of March, their release on that date of course depending on whether any other case of the disease develops in the house before that time. The patient who has the disease was taken to the pest house immediately and Mr. and Mrs. Erredge feel assured that there is very slight danger of any spread of the disease in the building, every precaution having been taken by the authorities.

Ignorant of the fact that these two Janesville people were under quarantine we started out to call on them in fulfillment of promises made about three weeks ago. As we approached the steps of the house a little girl called out: "You can't go in there. That house is quarantined for small-pox." We started to make ourselves scarce in that neighborhood but the child stopped us by saying that if we wanted to talk to any one we could go in the hall way and the folks we wanted to see could come to the top of the stairs as only the upper part of the house was quarantined.

She ran away to call the guard who is stationed at the house to maintain the quarantine and we decided that we would let the guard tell Mr. and Mrs. Erredge that we had attempted to call on them. We sympathized with them in their loneliness but we were not exactly yearning to enter even the hallway of the house.

From Second Story Window. The experience ended more satisfactorily, however, for the guard called us to the side of the house and we saw the people whom we were seeking leaning out of a second story window. Standing on the lawn we paid them quite a respectable call although the circumstances offered no special inducements to protract it beyond the conventional society limit. We promised to send word home of the predicament which they are in for of course they are not allowed to send out any letters although they can receive all the letters their friends chose to send them.

They wanted the friends at home assured that they are well and happy, living at the city's expense and well cared for and having no fear whatever of the disease. Naturally, however, they do not enjoy being shut up in the house for three weeks.

There is a great deal of small-pox in this state and especially in this city but no one would ever know it is passing along the streets. The doors of the quarantined house are locked and the keys given to the guard but no yellow card of warning is placed on the building. That custom has recently been abandoned because it scares away tourists from the neighborhood in which the infected house stands and even from the city. That calamity must be avoided at all hazards for to all appearances the majority of the people living in California make their living out of tourists from the eastern states.

Unpleasant Experiences

Since coming here last November Mrs. Erredge has been the victim of a series of unpleasant experiences. She has been sick the greater part of the time and had only been out of the house about three weeks, after a severe attack of the mumps, when this quarantine was imposed on her. No wonder she is homesick and can see nothing to enjoy about the country except the green grass. She is very anxious for April to come as that is the month she has determined upon for her to go home. Mr. Erredge, on the contrary, is delighted with the country and is anxious to locate here permanently.

Janesville People Meet

It is just about three weeks ago that

HOW JAMES WON AND LOST HIS FIGHT IN THIS TOWN

Before leaving Janesville for Racine, after deciding to claim the present site of this city as his homestead, Henry James employed Mr. Samuel St. John to build him a cabin. This work was done in James' absence.

The third trip that the hardy pioneer made to Rock River, must have been uneventful—from James' standpoint—because he gives no details concerning it.

This time he was accompanied by his wife and family. They arrived, via the Indian trail, about four o'clock in the afternoon of May 19th, 1836. This Indian trail passed up the river through the present city. James' family was the fourth family in Rock County. The City of Janesville then consisted of one log "shack," 18 feet square, with the bark still on the logs with which it was constructed, no floor, and no window or door, inhabited by one family.

Mr. James had no idea of building up a town. He was simply taking up a homestead, but in moving to Janesville, he had left a trail for others to follow, and all travel followed that route to Rock River. At that time says James, Wisconsin City, Rockport, and other "paper towns" were also in existence along the river.

Outlet For Lead Mines.

In the fall of the same year James went to Camp & Collins' mines, and bought two wagon loads of lead. This shipment completed a communication between Racine and the lead mines. The road passed James' cabin, and there was soon a steady stream of travel upon it. There was no bridge across the river, but the hardy pioneers swam their horses alongside of canoes, and brought the wagons across the same way. Accordingly James was beset with requests to provide a ferry boat.

To build one was no small undertaking with the limited facilities at hand, but James set about it and of course succeeded. He then went to Belmont while the legislature was in session to get a charter to operate the ferry. He had no idea that there would be any opposition to his plan. New as the country was, however, competition had sprung up. Wisconsin City, Rockport and Hume's ferry united in a remonstrance against James' charter.

Fight Between Towns.

War between these two settlements ensued. James was not discouraged, but put all his energy into the affair. His first move was to lay out a town—and thus Janesville was born. Two of the other places gave up the fight the next summer, and abandoned their sites, taking up a new location, at a place called St. George's Rapids, but all continued to wage war on James and his village.

James attended the session of the legislature at Burlington, Iowa and at Madison, for 3 or 4 years, securing all the roads, mail routes and other legislation that he asked for.

"But," says James, "in getting the county seat located in Janesville, the county took presumption on that, and

MICHAEL MADDEN GIVEN A SURPRISE

His Retirement with a Pension from Northwestern Road, is a Cause for Congratulations.

That fellow workmen remember one another was pleasantly demonstrated at the round house of the C. & N. W. R. R. yesterday afternoon. For forty-five years Michael Madden has been in the employ of that railway and a few days ago he was placed on the honored retired list and granted a pension.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Madden was summoned to the round-house and Foreman Thomas Erickson presented him with a fine easy chair and an purse of money as a token of esteem by those who had known Mr.

WHY?

Why do women continue to endure suffering caused by womanly diseases? There are many answers to that question. Sometimes because they have exhausted the skill of local physicians and remain uncured. At other times it is because they shrink from submitting to obnoxious examinations which local physicians deem necessary. And to sum it all up, they endure suffering because they do not know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries disagreeable drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I enjoy good health; thanks to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. J. J. Schreyer, of Pontiac, Livingston Co., Ill. "I was taken sick and the doctors here called it 'Grip.' I lay for four weeks in bed, then when I got up I found I had 'displacement.' I had such aches and pains in my back and limbs I could not stand any length of time. I knew that our home doctor would insist the first thing on an examination, and that I would not submit to, unless I was dangerously sick. My son had your book, 'Common Sense Medical Adviser,' and I thought from reading it that Dr. Pierce's medicine would do me more good than all the home doctors—and so it has. I can truly say I was surprised at the benefit I received. I can do all my washing and also tend my flower garden. In fact I am on my feet most all the time. An old friend of mine said to me, 'What is the matter with you? You are getting young again.' I told her I had taken six bottles of Dr. Pierce's medicine, and that if she would do likewise she would feel ten years younger, too."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser paper covers is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

One Very Common Cause, Generally Overlooked.

Headache is a symptom, an indication of derangement or disease in some organ, and the cause of headache is difficult to locate because so many diseases have headache as a prominent symptom. Derangement of the stomach and liver, heart trouble, kidney disease, lung trouble, eye strain or ill fitting glasses, all produce headaches, and if we could always locate the organ which is at fault the cure of obstinate headaches would be a much simpler matter.

However, for that form of headache called front headache, pain back of the eyes and in forehead, the cause is now known to be catarrh of the head and throat; when the headache is located in back of the head and neck it is often caused from catarrh of the stomach or liver.

At any rate catarrh is the most common cause of such headaches and the cure of the catarrh causes a prompt disappearance of the headaches.

There is at present no treatment for catarrh so convenient and effective as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a new internal remedy in tablet form, composed of antiseptics like eucalypt, tol, guaiacal and blood root which act upon the blood and cause the elimination of the catarrhal poison from the system through the natural channels.

Miss Cora Almsley, a prominent school teacher in one of our normal schools, speaks of her experience with catarrhal headaches and eulogizes Stuart's Catarrh Tablets as a cure for them. She says: "I suffered daily from severe frontal headache and pain in back of the eyes, at times so intensely as to incapacitate me in my daily duties. I had suffered from catarrh, more or less for years, but never thought it was the cause of my headaches, but finally became convinced that such was the case, because the headaches were always worse when I had a cold or fresh attack of catarrh."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets were highly recommended to me as a safe and pleasant catarrh cure, and after using a few fifty-cent boxes which I procured from my druggist I was surprised and delighted to find that both the catarrh and headaches had gone for good."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50c per package, under guarantee of the proprietors that they contain absolutely no cocaine (found in so many catarrh cures), no opium (so common in cheap cough cures), nor any harmful drug. They contain simply the wholesome antiseptics necessary to destroy and drive from the system the germs of catarrhal disease.

Physicians everywhere are disagreeing on the function of the vermiform appendix, the disease of which is appendicitis. Many contend it has no use, others the contrary. Records show that appendicitis is fatal in thousands of cases each year, and yet the whole trouble can be averted by taking Dr. Crane's Quaker Tonic Tablets regularly. Cost fifty cents.

Danger of Colds and La Grippe.

The greatest danger of colds and La Grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous malady. It will cure a cold or an attack of La Grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

STROLLERS MADE A GOOD IMPRESSION

Largest Audience of the Season Gathered at the Myers Grand Last Evening.

"The Strollers" who appeared at the Myers Grand last evening furnished a really funny musical extravaganza. Nor are its merits all recounted when this is said. The foundation of its success is the cleverness and originality of the book by Harry B. Smith, who adapted it from the German of L. Krenn. The adventure of the vagabond and his wife furnish a story of sufficient interest to pique the curiosity for its development.

The principal comedians are John Henshaw and Edwin Foy, who are in about as marked a contrast as could be imagined. Henshaw is as gracefully debonair and audacious as ever. Being well provided for in the matter of roles he has only to overlay it richly with his characteristic persiflage.

Edwin Foy is just the same as he always has been—only more so. His face, with the same make-up he has always affected, is expressive only of sublime and thoroughly satisfied insanity. His slightest motion suffices to set the audience off into roars of laughter. No one ever explained just why. Foy was funny, but no one ever admits that he is. His costumes in the present production are marvels of ingenuity and his pathetic pursuit through the whole play of his beloved "pants" is certainly an original idea. It is noted with surprise too, that Foy has had his voice sand-papered down so that it is not nearly so raucous as formerly.

D. L. Don, the third comedian, is a quaint little fellow, with a squeaky voice and nimble legs.

Marie George, who plays the Stroller's wife is a clever and piquant comedienne who dances nimbly and is handy at repartee. Jostie De Witt as the ballet dancer makes a pleasing picture and sings well besides. The other roles are well taken care of and the background is furnished by an unusually large company. The chorus has evidently been selected by some good judges of beauty who has not forgotten the necessity for good voices and sprightly ways.

LOCAL PEOPLE IN CALIFORNIA

We held a little impromptu gathering of Janesville people at Long Beach, a prosperous beach city about twenty miles from Los Angeles. A cousin of mine took us down for a day's outing on the coast and Mr. and Mrs. Erredge chanced to make the trip on the same day.

We all met at the cottage where five Janesville people make their home, the quintet being Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown and son Clarence, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Fletcher. In the afternoon Mr. Frank Gray dropped in to welcome us to California and to assure us that there is no place in the state which is quite the equal of Long Beach. The chance reunion was a very happy one and the little cottage crowded with Janesville people looked quite like a bit of home.

Home faces look pretty good to the traveler thousands of miles from home and nowhere is the strength of home ties more frequently evidenced than in California. The word "Wisconsin" makes friends of total strangers though their homes may be at opposite ends of this state and secures courtesies from former residents of the Badger state but the word "Janesville" is a magic key to the heart of anyone who has ever lived in the valley of the Rock.

I almost believe it would have power to make the worst of enemies rush to meet each other and extend glad greetings. Certain it is that a bowing acquaintance in Janesville means close friendship in California, if the two people chance to be where frequent meetings are possible.

A Colony at Long Beach
At Long Beach there is quite a colony of Janesville people. This city has grown rapidly during the past few years and now has a permanent population of about 4,000 people, that number being doubled at present by tourists. In summer it is a great resort place for residents of Southern California. Many of the cottages are on the ocean front and the windows of the rooms occupied by the Browns and Fletchers look out on the ever changing and fascinating water. The two families are "as snug as a bug in a rug" in their pleasant quarters and are enjoying life thoroughly.

The Raymond cafe of which Mr. Brown is proprietor, is also situated on the ocean front, near the long pier where all the crowds congregate and is the leading restaurant of the place. He refused to accept Wisconsin money for our dinner so we threatened to board with him steadily at the same rate. The dinner was a very excellent one and it is a source of continual wonderment how such meals can be served for twenty-five cents.

A choice of two kinds of soup, of four kinds of meat accompanied by two kinds of vegetables, besides the potatoes, with pie and fruit and the necessary tea or coffee, bread and butter with celery and pickles made up the appetizing menu. There is

WONDERFUL DANDERINE

MISS HELEN HART
6551 KIMBARK AVE., CHICAGO.

Chicago, Feb. 6, 1902.
Known to Dandierine Co., Chicago—Dear Sirs: I have used your Dandierine for nearly six months, and I think it is just time. My hair now measures four feet and one half, and it was less than two feet four when I commenced to use your tonic. I am going to keep it up and see just how long it will make my hair grow. Sincerely yours,

Helen Hart

6551 Kimbark Ave.
DANDIERINE is absorbed most eagerly by the scalp, and its properties are so invigorating and strengthening that it makes the hair grow unusually thick and long. When applied to the scalp it is just as sure to produce an abundance of long, glossy hair as a fertile soil is to produce vegetation when the seeds are sown. It is working wonders everywhere. We guarantee that one 25c bottle of it will do the hair more good than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. Be sure you get the genuine, made only by The Dandierine Co., Chicago, Ill. 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. All druggists keep Dandierine or will order it for you if you ask them.

FREE To show how quickly Dandierine acts, The Dandierine Co., Chicago, will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends us this advertisement with their name and address and ten in silver or stamps to pay postage.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.
Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Creasy Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail, Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

evidence of Mrs. Brown's efficient management behind the scenes and although she and her husband work hard early and late, they are building up a prosperous little business that bids fair to reward them well for their labor. Both look in good health now, though Mrs. Brown was very sick for several weeks. Home-sickness has also visited the Janesville delegation in no unmistakable manner.

Fletcher Gaining in Health.
Mr. Fletcher, who is here for his health, has derived great benefit from the climate and the outdoor life which he and his wife lead. Both have gained several pounds in weight and now an animated debate is in progress as to whether they shall return home the first of April or the first of May. The beneficial effect of the mild climate is also very manifest in Mr. Gray, who is heavier than ever before in his life.

He spends the greater part of his time fishing and hunting, while in his room, at the pleasant home of his daughter, Mrs. Hattie Johnson, he has a very fine music box and phonograph, which enable him to entertain himself and his friends with splendid concerts.

Missed Mrs. Julia Echlin.
Miss Janes arrived in Long Beach for a three weeks stay on the day we were there, but missed seeing her. She has returned to Los Angeles and in about a week she expects to start on her homeward way. We also missed seeing Miss Julia Echlin, who boards with Mrs. Hart and who was spending the day in Los Angeles. During a recent visit to the beach, however, she met Mr. Brand on the street and in the afternoon we called on her.

We found her weeding the garden and as she came toward us, the very picture of health with her rosy cheeks and sun-browned face and hands. I could scarcely believe my eyes. Out-of-door life in the garden and on the beach is the daily program which brings her happiness and health. It was a joy to hear her clear ringing laugh as we gaily discussed conditions in California and fondly talked of friends at home.

Sawdust or Bran.
She told us a rather good joke at our expense. One afternoon we called on Miss Edna Sheppell, who is boarding in Los Angeles, only to find that she and Miss Echlin were out calling and as we had no cards with us, so we told the landlady to tell her that Mr. and Mrs. Brand from Janesville had called. When Miss Echlin and Miss Sheppell returned to the house the landlady soberly informed them that Mr. and Mrs. Sawdust had called. After puzzling over it a minute or so they decided on our identity and the landlady said she knew it was sawdust or bran or something like that.

While at Long Beach we also saw Mr. Stannard, once in the Globe Shoe store at Janesville, but now employed in a drug store at the beach, and his wife, and Mrs. Jordan, formerly Mrs. Mary Cooke, as well as her daughter, Miss Jessie Cooke. Mrs. Jordan is assisting her daughter and son in conducting a large bakery and confectionary store, a very prosperous business.

Look for the Gazette
Mrs. Jordan's home is at Pasadena and her husband's business keeps him in San Francisco the greater part of the time. All the Janesville people keep thoroughly informed on home news through the columns of the Gazette which is an eagerly welcomed visitor. In every home where we have visited its familiar pages are to be seen and in the majority of instances the interest in home news is so keen that the daily Gazette is taken instead of the weekly, as one would ordinarily expect would be the case.

Many of those who have lived in California so many years that the majority of names in the paper today are strange to them still they assert that they could not keep house without the Gazette. They say there is no day so lonesome as the one when by some chance the mail fails to bring the looked-for paper and it does not arrive until twenty-four hours later. This seldom happens however and every day in the week except Thursday scores of Gazettes are eagerly torn from their wrappings in order that sojourners in California may see what is happening "back home." The Saturday issue reaches here Wednesday and this explains why Thursday is the Gazetteless day.

Washington, Feb. 27.—A committee of Baptist colored ministers has petitioned President Roosevelt to appoint one colored boy each to West Point and Annapolis. He gave no definite answer.

RIISING WATERS DARKEN CITY

Lancaster, Pa., Feb. 27.—Residents of Columbia were in a state of terror last night. The worst flood in many years is being experienced. The ice on the Susquehanna river broke yesterday afternoon and passed down stream. Then the water began to back up and soon had risen nine feet. The water entered the boiler room of the electric lighting plant, putting the town in darkness. The tracks of the Columbia and Port Deposit railroad are submerged. The large sand dredging machine has been washed away. Water surrounds the city pumping station.

The lace mills will be damaged and the two rolling mills of the Susquehanna Iron company put out of operation. The Conestoga is pouring a great volume of water into the river at Safe Harbor. The stream is higher than it has been for thirty-five years. It damaged the electric light plant, darkening the streets of the city last night. Water at midnight was pouring over the great steel bridge of the Pennsylvania Railroad company which spans the Susquehanna from Columbia to Wrightsville.

Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—The Schuylkill river was sixteen feet above its normal level yesterday and is rapidly rising. The mill district of Manayunk, a suburb of this city, is under water, and many of the factories situated along the banks of the river are inundated. A breach forty feet wide has been made in the Flat Rock dam opposite Manayunk by tons of ice which were swept from the upper Schuylkill. The Fairmount park drives skirting the stream are several feet under water, and the streets in the section of the city bordering on the Schuylkill have been transformed into lakes. An ice gorge has been formed at Gray's Ferry bridge in the lower river, and this is hourly being enlarged by immense floes driven through the break in Flat Rock dam. Should the ice fail to pass out into the Delaware river there is danger of a disastrous freshet along the entire length of the Schuylkill in this city. The high water is due to the warm rain which fell all of Tuesday and Tuesday night.

SOMETHING ABOUT TAXES.

The Janesville Gazette still argues that because the mill tax was not induced by the last legislature to correspond with the increased amount of assessments throughout the state that there is danger of the same operation in case the taxes of the corporations are increased and that the result will be an excess of revenue and unnecessary extravagance.

It is evident the two cases are not parallel. In the case of the school tax the rate has been fixed at the rate of one mill, which, under the old plan of assessment at least, will be conceded to be neither excessive or burdensome. When the new plan of assessing all property at full value was adopted, there was a question as to how it would operate and until the plan had been tested it was the course of wisdom to leave the mill tax unchanged. Even now, considering the fact that the fund thus raised is purely for educational purposes and is therefore of great value to the people and the state as a whole, it is doubtful if the fair minded citizens will approve any plan for reducing the rate, but if it deemed advisable to follow this course, it is entirely within the power of the people, acting through their chosen representative in the legislature, to cut the rate to any point which is considered desirable.

Oshkosh Northwestern.

The "Northwestern" indulges in the same old argument, and attempts to justify the one-mill tax, because it is for educational purpose.

The argument lacks in both justice and common sense, because it is purely sentimental. There is no more sense in a one-mill tax for educational purposes, than there would be in a one-mill tax for state institutions. The latter are required to furnish an itemized budget for every dollar needed and this budget is scrutinized and revised, until every last item is eliminated, that seems unnecessary. The schools should be subjected to the same careful and business like treatment. It is a flagrant abuse of power, when the people are required to pay $800,000 into any fund, in advance of its requirements and no argument has yet been produced that is at all satisfactory to the people on this point.

The schools are recognized as important and the state has dealt very liberally with them.

The University with its equipment representing many millions of dollars, has not only received liberal support, but for years the institution has taken the liberty to demand anything that fancy seemed to require, and the demands have been met time and again without much opposition.

There is a good deal of sentiment about higher education at public expense, and it is an open question as to whether the boy who works out his own destiny, is not better equipped for independent self support, than the boy who has everything done for him at public and private expense. The corporations may not be paying their share of the state taxes. That is a question for the authorities to decide, but there is no question about the people, and the school tax. That is a matter of record. The state is holding in trust today about a million of the people's money, that is not needed, and if the people had been permitted to keep it, the first practical step in tax reform would have been taken.

THE SENATE SQUABBLE.

The United States senate has never been confronted with a proposition exactly like the one now pending. The two senators from South Carolina, are in contempt, and the state is without representation in the upper house. A question of constitutional law is involved, requiring conservative action, and impassioned discussion. While there is no question about some kind of a penalty for the grave misdemeanor, there is a very serious question about senatorial rights and state rights. If it were possible to expel Tillman and bar him for all time, the action would be endorsed by public sentiment. So far as McLaughlin is concerned, conditions are different. While a party to the disgraceful fight, it was forced upon him, and there was but one thing for him to do. The democratic members, led by Bailey, of Texas, of course defend their southern colleague. Their notion of chivalry and offended honor would make most any sort of a fight defensible. It is safe to assume that all sides of the question will be carefully considered, and while the disgraceful proceeding will remain as a blot upon the pages of history, justice will result for both the state and combatants.

INTERESTING RELICS

Among the archives of the business men's association, were the books containing the constitution and membership roll. The club was organized in 1885 and was very liberally supported by the business men of the city. Many of the names recorded are of men who have since died. The records revive recollections of the boom period, which struck the city about the time that the Evansville cut-off was promoted. The $50,000 train is duly exploited, and a Beloit editor sends up a wall of indignation, predicting all sorts of calamity and revenge. Seventeen years have elapsed. Janesville has lost nothing, and Beloit has doubled in population and energy.

Reviewing the record is like a breezy talk with "Windy Hamilton," and a little stretch of imagination makes the hearty methodist "Amen," which he used to such good purposes, audible. It also suggests the enthusiasm, and ever hopeful attitude of Geo. L. Carrington, the man who, while not appreciated, accomplished more for Janesville, than any man who ever tackled the job, without capital.

The club had an eventful history for ten years, and then did not expire, but went out like a sunflower, it accomplished a mission, was a credit to the city, and the effort to revive it is worthy of every encouragement. The books are in the hands of the secretary, Mr. Bingham, at the Power City bank. The membership fee is so light, that every business man in the city can afford to enroll in his name. The object of the club is for business purposes, and the social features are all eliminated. Every dollar spent will be to promote the welfare of the city. There is always enthusiasm in union of effort, and there is every reason why the business men of the city should work together, for general prosperity.

The effort to weaken Senator Whitehead's candidacy, by claiming that he is too good a man for governor, will fall flat, so far as results are concerned. Uprightness of character and loyalty to principles, are elements of strength, and are always so regarded. Senator Whitehead will gain in strength as the campaign progresses.

Prince Henry must have been impressed with the dignity of our free institutions, when he visited the senate. He should have called last week while "Pitchfork" was presiding. There is nothing like a free menagerie for our distinguished guests.

Pitchfork Tillman should be turned loose on his own soil. He has never become acclimated and advancing years fail to add anything to his nature that is of service to a legislature.

PRESS COMMENT.

Watertown Times: Senator John M. Whitehead has formally announced that he will be a candidate before the next republican state convention for the nomination for governor. This action was taken in answer to a call signed by thousands of republicans throughout the state. In republican ranks the question is now before the people to decide whether Governor La Follette shall be nominated or not. With the experience of the work done at the last legislative republicans may well stop and consider for the party and the public in general if it is well to renominate Governor La Follette.

Fond du Lac Reporter: The Oshkosh Northwestern refers to Mr. Overbeck as "our clever game warden." There are other game wardens as well as all inspectors, etc., who are as entitled to be called clever, in so far as they apply themselves to the political work of the hour.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: The weather for the past two weeks has shivered about all that was left of the ground hog's reputation as a weather prophet. It will be a matter of little concern now what that animal does when the second of February comes around again.

Madison Democrat: William Allen White, the man, whom Senator Tom Platt talked of suing for libel for painting his picture too literally "with the warts on his nose," is writing stories of politics. In one he tells of a young orator who "captured a governorship and did not know what to do with it." Is he getting personal?

Sheboygan News: "How can you distinguish oleomargarine from real butter?" Inquired a member of the investigating committee. "Melt some of it in a frying pan," replied the expert. "If any dirt settles to the bottom it's real butter. If not, it's oleomargarine."

Milwaukee Journal: As state treasurer, James O. Davidson has saved a few dollars, and, if he has not lost his thrift, he will not lavish them in mal does when the second of February comes.

WHITEHEAD'S ACCEPTANCE.
Senator Whitehead of Janesville accepts. He will make the run for governor. The petitions calling him out were many and diverse; as petitions always are. Whether many of the signers vot for him at the caucuses depends upon the effect of campaign arguments upon the signers. It by no means follows that to sign a petition is to stand by a petition. A prejudice, some new light, will shift a voter about.

As readers of the State Journal know, this paper admires Whitehead. We have not nor shall we print one word that can reflect upon him as a man. To do so would be petty politics, for he is a just man and a legislator for the people. In a normal condition of politics his candidacy would be one to compel the support of every good citizen.—Madison State Journal.

SENATOR WHITEHEAD.

The acceptance of the call by Senator Whitehead, gives a definite form to the movement which has been under way for some months past looking to a re-organization of the republican party along conservative lines. The Wisconsin Republican League, through which this organization has been effected, took no part in the selecting of a candidate, that being left to the rank and file of the republicans themselves. Any republican in whose conservatism the im-pliet confidence of the people might be safely placed would have been acceptable to the league. Now that a call, signed by republicans of all nationalities, of all professions, and industries, both young and old, the signatures numbering up into the tens of thousands, has been accepted by Senator Whitehead, he becomes the candidate of all republicans in Wisconsin, who believe in a conservative, capable, business like administration of state affairs.—Fond du Lac Commonwealth.

GLASS HOUSES.

The outcry made by the organs of the governor because of the literary bureau of the Republican league makes people laugh. The most complete and best organized literary bureau ever conducted in the state was that managed in the interests of Gov. La Follette himself. It is not simply for one campaign but in others. Every state central committee of late years has done precisely the same thing and all parties are equally responsible. It is not forgotten that a certain paper at Madison was largely sustained by cash subscriptions alleged and fully believed to have come from the governor and his friends, and that its large circulation was deceptive in this respect.

Ready made editorials, extracts handy for clipping out have been a feature in the management of our campaigns, and it has been regarded as perfectly legitimate. It is unexplained why governor La Follette and his organs should now profess such indignation with the republican league, when it is but an idea borrowed from practices common to themselves and undoubtedly practiced since his advent to office. Why should it be so wrong for the republican league and right for their opponents?

The La Follette literary bureaus should take in several tucks and reefs and look pleasant. The great game is being played on both sides and if the governor has been worsted it is better to keep still. The Wisconsin people want none of the governor's reforms as per laws of his creation or design. They demand of any governor the right of expression of views and mutual conferences of able minds.—Racine Journal.

John M. Whitehead's Acceptance.

Senator John M. Whitehead of Rock County has concluded to announce himself as candidate for governor of Wisconsin, in response to numerous petitions which have been presented to him from all sections of the state to become a candidate. We had hoped that senator Whitehead would have deferred this announcement until after the spring election, as we fear his acceptance will cast a fireball in the politics of our city, previous to the municipal election. But the judgment of Senator Whitehead and his friends has decided otherwise, as they insist that he had to come out now to prove that he was not at all discouraged by the storm which has been raging around his head since the boobyery in Grant Co.

Sensor Whitehead is a man of ability, experience and true worth; but time will tell whether he can stand the attrition of an eight-months' canvass, which is the longest in the political history of Wisconsin.

As Mr. Whitehead is a republican, and will support the nominee of the republican convention, whomsoever he happens to be, we suggest, in canvassing his merits and demerits, fairness and truth should always be exhibited, and with a charity so commendable that no one can justly complain of the severity of the trial.—Evening Wisconsin.

Injunctions Are Expensive

"He kissed me? Yes," the maiden said. "Although I met him coldly; I hooked away and turned my head—He followed me most boldly." "Absurd!" her father made reply: "You're trying to deceive me! That you did not the youth deny. Most grievously doth grieve me. A lawyer's daughter should in mind be over so resourceful. That favors sought may be declined by methods 'smooth' or forceful. 'You ought to know the proper way To keep one from obtaining. 'What'er he seeks—that is to say, 'If you've had proper training.' 'Of course I know the thing to do.' She said in tone defensive; 'But surely it is known to you Injunctions are expensive.'—Brooklyn Eagle.

BANQUETS TO PRINCE HENRY

Millionaires and Editors Entertain Royal Visitor and Hear Speeches.

DRINK TO EMPEROR'S HEALTH

German-Americans of New York give Kaiser's Brother an Ovation, at Which He Speaks of the United States as a Brilliant Country.

New York, Feb. 27.—For the first time in the United States in 120 years the health of a sovereign was drunk by Americans with all royal observance yesterday. The floor of Sherry's banquet room was littered with broken glass after the toast of "The Kaiser" at the luncheon in honor of Prince Henry, given by the richest men in the world and attended by the chiefs of finance and trade and the great scientists and inventors of America. The royal purple carpet, specially laid for this festival, was ground full of the snapped glasses in which the Emperor's health had been drunk.

The Prince met the genius of America, and for once the talk was not all compliment and courteous froth, for the Prince after the formal function gathered about him such men as J. Pierpont Morgan and Thomas A. Edison and had them tell him how America had won its pre-eminence in industry. It was the most characteristic feature of Prince Henry's stay in New York.

But the millionaires' banquet was openly one of the big things of the day. It began at noon, for the Prince had to have some rest after the social exertions of the day before.

Another feature of the day was the torchlight parade of the German-Americans, which the Prince reviewed from the balcony of the Arion Club. Fifteen thousand of the former subjects of the royal visitor's brother marched before the Prince, who gravely saluted each battalion as it passed, and in the club the visitor made a serious little speech, in which he bade his hearers to be as good Americans in this country as they would have been Germans in the Fatherland.

And still, the day's feasting and speech-making was not done. Later in the evening the Prince attended the press dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria at which Herman Ridder was toastmaster, and at which editors from all over the country responded. There were twelve hundred at this banquet, and to them Prince Henry made another speech, and for the first time formally made known the purpose of his visit.

He came, he said, to cement the friendship of the two countries, and he added significantly that, if America ever cared to extend her hand, she would find it heartily grasped across the sea.

And, leaving his hearers to digest this hint of alliance, Prince Henry drove back to the imperial yacht, to prepare for his journey, with the escort of cavalry clattering faithfully about his carriage.

Ohio Local Option Bill Passed. Columbus, O., Feb. 27.—The house yesterday passed the Brall municipal local option bill by a vote of 32 to 16. The bill provides for local option elections in municipal corporations on petition of 40 per cent of the qualified electors. The advocates of the bill claim it will pass the senate. The house also passed the Williams bill imposing a tax of 1-100 per cent upon the outstanding capital stock of corporations.

The first rain this year began falling this morning and continued through the day.

BROUGHT TO LIGHT.
Janesville People Receiving The Full Benefit.
There have been many cases like the following in Janesville. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain, straight, forward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

Mr. E. T. Fish, of 355 Racine St. proprietor of the Fish Dray Line, says: "When I was twenty years of age I fell injured my back, and ever since that I was troubled more or less with a dull, aching pain across the loins. It never laid me up but it was often painful and annoying. Of late years I have gone to a physician every six months and had myself thoroughly examined under the impression that there might be something wrong with my kidneys. The diagnosis always resulting in the physician claiming these organs were sound, but as the pains existed when I happened to notice in my I heard of papers that Dr. King's Kidney Pills were guaranteed to cure just such troubles. I procured a box at the People's Drug Co. store, and took them. Dr. King's Kidney Pills are a good preparation. My back has not ached since I used them. I have heard others speak very complimentary of them and if I did not know their merit and required such a medicine I would consider it a favor if some one suggested their use to me. For this reason I endorse them."

TO MOTHERS

Mrs. J. H. Haskins, of Chicago, Ill., President Chicago Arcade Club, Addresses Comforting Words to Women Regarding Childbirth.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Mothers need not dread childbearing after they know the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. While I loved children I dreaded the ordeal, for it left me weak and sick for months after, and at the time I thought death was a welcome relief; but before my last child was born a good neighbor advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I used that, together with your Pills and Sanative Wash for four months before the child's birth;—it brought me wonderful relief. I hardly had an ache or pain, and when the child was ten days old I left my bed strong in health. Every spring and fall I now take a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and find it keeps me in continual excellent health."—Mrs. J. H. HASKINS, 3248 Indiana Ave., Chicago, Ill. —$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

Care and careful counsel is what the expectant and would-be mother needs, and this counsel she can secure without cost by writing to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass.

SENATORS UNABLE TO FIX PENALTY

They Fail to Agree on Punishment for Tillman and McLaurin.

REFERRED TO SUBCOMMITTEE.

Democrats Demand That No Favor Be Shown to Either Senator, Holding That Both Are Equally Guilty—Suspension Opposed on Political Grounds.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The tangle in which the United States Senate has involved itself since the Tillman-McLaurin fist fight of last Saturday is an engrossing topic in legislative Washington. Even Prince Henry is momentarily forgotten by the grave and perplexed statesmen. The Senate is doing no business—has been a non-entity for two days, and it is getting deeper into the mire. No light is in sight.

The sessions of the committee on privileges and elections yesterday indicate the pitfalls ahead. The Republican senators would punish Tillman more than McLaurin and the Democrats would mete out to both belligerents the same dose of justice. Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, one of the new senators who is on a subcommittee appointed yesterday by Chairman Burrows of the committee on privileges and elections, says he would favor expulsion rather than suspension, because expulsion would be constitutionally permissible.

The other members of this subcommittee are Senators Burrows, Foraker and Hoar, Republicans, and Senator Pettus, Democrat. The subcommittee is expected to plan a compromise scheme which it will present to the full committee Friday. There is small hope that, if a compromise plan is adopted by the subsidiary body, it will be favored by the regular committee. Senator Pritchard of North Carolina, in championing Mr. McLaurin's cause, threatened to oppose any agreement which contemplated a like punishment for both the disgraced senators.

Mr. Pritchard believes Mr. McLaurin should be censured and Mr. Tillman required to make an abject apology. Mr. Bailey declares that suspension is not to be thought of; other senators side with Mr. Pritchard and many with Mr. Bailey.

"Suspension would mean temporary expulsion," said Senator Bailey in speaking of the matter. "It would prohibit South Carolina replacing the offending senators with other representatives. It requires a two-thirds vote to expel a senator and he may be replaced by the governor of his state immediately. If suspension is to be permitted a majority vote only would be required. A majority then would have it in its power to accomplish all the penalties of expulsion and more."

Senator Bailey pointed out the ease with which in case of a nearly equal vote on the question the majority might suspend two or more senators such as the existing condition demands in his opinion. He also said the Paris treaty was ratified by a very close vote, and applying this interpretation to that situation he asked, "Would not a majority of the Senate have been able by simply suspending a sufficient number of members for a week to secure the required two-thirds vote and ratify that treaty?"

From all the evidence at hand it appears that the Democrats are anxious that the Republicans shall not show McLaurin a favor over Tillman. The Democrats think, it is reported, that the Republicans like McLaurin for various reasons and do not like Tillman for other reasons. The Democrats say that if the Republicans favor McLaurin the other side of the Senate will not, and hence it will insist on no discrimination being made to ease the disgrace in store for the junior senator from the Palmetto State. This feeling among the two parties as represented in the Senate was clearly brought out at the sessions of the committee yesterday. In the free discussion of the matter the republican members virtually proclaimed their belief in the justice of showing McLaurin greater mercy than Tillman should get.

THE LIVER.

Continually Changing Its Position in Its Auxiliary Formation of the Blood.

Every drop of blood that flows through our veins passes through the liver in its formation. Any habit or work that tends to check the circulation of the blood in its passage through the liver materially affects the health. Sewing, leaning forward at the desk, tight lacing, and all sedentary habits retard the circulation of the blood through the liver. The first symptoms of a disordered liver are flushed cheeks, the complexion becomes dark, showing a congested condition of the circulation. The pressure on the nerves is increased, the great nerve center, the brain, responds with violent headache. Other symptoms are dizziness, bad breath, coated tongue, pain above the eyes and in the rear and lower part of the head and neck, dull and tired feelings. The complexion gradually becomes sallow and yellow, and sometimes covered with blotches, which are typical evidences of torpid liver and sluggish bowels.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Herb Laxative Compound acts gently on the liver, increasing its activity in its formation of the blood, giving a bright, clear complexion, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and all ailments caused from a torpid liver and sluggish bowels. Pleasant to the taste, mild in its action and soothing in its effects. 50c and $1 bottles. Your druggist sells this sample bottle and box free. Pepsin Syrup Company, Monticello, Ill.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

Rock Island Hare Burlington Branch. Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 27.—That part of the Northern Connecting Railway system from Plattsburg, Mo., south to Kansas City, a distance of forty-one miles, has been sold by the Burlington Railroad to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad.

Railway Train Runs Amuck.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 27.—A runaway empty passenger train in the Grand Trunk yards punched a hole two stories high and wide enough for two trains to pass abreast through the brick wall of the Lake Shore freight office yesterday.

Boers Capture British Convoy.

London, Feb. 27.—Lord Kitchener telegraphs the war office that an empty convoy from the column of Major von Donop at Wolmanstardt was attacked by the Boers about a mile south of Klerksdorp and after severe fighting was captured.

To Return Exposition Funds.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Although the Illinois building brought only $150 at the close of the Buffalo exposition, the Illinois commission reported that $19,366 remained unused.

Knox College Bell Stolen.

Galesburg, Ill., Feb. 27.—The new Knox College bell was stolen from Alumni Hall Wednesday night, and the theft has created a great sensation among students and citizens.

Politician Drowns Himself.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 27.—John Fogarty, Democratic politician and former member of the school board, committed suicide yesterday by drowning.

Count Tolstoy Out of Danger.

Yalta, Crimea, Feb. 27.—All immediate danger of the death of Count Tolstoy is passed.

(SIXTY EIGHTY-EIGHT.)
MATT J. JOHNSON CO., St. Paul, Minn.
Gentlemen:—I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism. I was laid up in bed and gave up all hopes of being cured. My legs were all swollen up and I could not move them without great pain. Your remedy was recommended to me by Chief Police Officer O'Connor, who said "dave" had cured him. On taking one-fourth of the bottle I was able to get out of bed, the first time in thirty days. I have taken my second bottle and now consider myself entirely cured. I write this that others may know of this wonderful remedy.

Respectfully yours,

Agree on Census Bill.
Washington, Feb. 27.—The conferees of the two houses of Congress on the bill creating a permanent census bureau reached an agreement yesterday. The bill as agreed upon embodies most of the amendments made in the Senate, though some of them are retained in modified forms. The Senate provision placing all employees at the time of the signing of the bill except unskilled laborers under the provisions of the civil service law is retained. The provision requiring future appointments to be made under the civil service law was modified by the conference so as to make the requirement applicable only to permanent appointments.

Washington Notes.
Washington, Feb. 27.—Governor Taft continued yesterday his statement before the insular committee of the House. He emphasized the need of increasing the appropriation for permanent military posts. He said there should be a thousand more American teachers in the island, and stated it would be desirable for Congress to guarantee the bonds to be issued for the purchase of the sugar lands, as it would secure a low interest rate.

The proposed limitation of work to eight hours a day on government contracts was again before the labor committee of the House, representatives of several large concerns doing government work appearing in opposition.
